

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY - YEAR A

FIRST READING – Exodus 34: 4-6, 8-9

A reading from the Book of Exodus

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

■ The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Dan 3: 52-56.

You are blest, Lord God of our fathers.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Blest your glorious holy name.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest in the temple of your glory.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest on the throne of your kingdom.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest who gaze into the depths.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest in the firmament of the heaven.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

SECOND READING – Corinthians 13: 11-13

A reading from the second letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the holy Spirit be with you all.

■ The word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia

GOSPEL – John 3: 16-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said to Nicodemus,
'God loved the world so much
that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost
but may have eternal life.
For God sent his Son into the world
not to condemn the world,
but so that through him the world might be saved.
No one who believes in him will be condemned;
but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already,
because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

■ The Gospel of the Lord.

Let's reflect...

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son..." (John 3:16)

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money, and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

THIS SUNDAY WE PRAY

In Thanksgiving: Claudia Rico, Mary Queen Pastorpile,

For the sick: Diana Machaya (2)

For those who have died recently: Charles Talary

For those whose anniversaries occur at this time: Malcolm Adaman, Victor & Maria de Souza, Bernice Fernando, Dolly & Tommy Lane, Kenneth & Philomena Paris, Oswald Francis, Charles Dennis

Any offers of Flowers for the St. Kevin's Church???

The current situation prompts a call for any parishioners who are in a position to provide flowers to help our parish through until the time when professional suppliers of flowers will be more accessible. Do you have flowers you could donate to the church? The parish flower ministry team normally prepares two large flower arrangements for the back wall of the sanctuary. Some change may be required, even if it were to be a single vase arrangement at the side/front of the altar. Please contact Pam Giaquinta on 0414 386 066

Sincere Thanks for Your Support

A Huge THANK YOU! Thank you very much for continuing to remember your support of St. Kevin's Parish during this period when we do not have our usual gatherings for Sunday Mass. Your ongoing financial support has been very heartening, particularly when the Presbytery collection is also remembered (providing for the priests of the parish and presbytery running costs, the Archbishop, and, more generally, priests of the Archdiocese). My strong sense is that a significant number of parishioners are aware that what the parish (both for the Parish and Presbytery) is currently receiving is well down on what would normally be received.

JUNE – till Friday 26th : Temporary Times

Currently it is possible to have 20 attendees, apart from the small number of support people. In these weeks:

- Tuesdays, Mass will be celebrated at 9.15am and 5.00pm.
- Wednesdays, Mass will be celebrated at 9.15am and 7.00pm (followed by Novena).
- Thursdays, Mass will be celebrated at 9.15am and 5.00pm.
- Fridays, Mass will be celebrated at 9.15am and 7.00pm.

Parishioners who wish to attend a Mass, are requested to come to the church at a time when the church is open (see below) in order to register for a Mass. Out of consideration for others, please register for only one Mass in the week. Only when all Masses in the week have been filled will people be registered for Masses in the following week.

The church will be open for private prayer on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 10.00am till 11.00am. The Sacrament of Penance/ Reconciliation is available on Saturdays from 9.45am till 10.30am.

There will be a continuation of the hygiene and disinfectant measures as well as the monitoring of doors (entry door). The Records Book will be maintained and the hand sanitiser is used before proceeding to occupy a designated seat in the church. The available seating is arranged as near to the sanctuary as possible.
