

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR B

FIRST READING – Job 38: 1, 8-11.

A reading from the book of Job.

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors
when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb,
when I wrapped it in a robe of mist
and made black clouds its swaddling bands;
when I marked the bounds it was not to cross
and made it fast with a bolted gate?
Come thus far, I said, and no farther:
here your proud waves shall break.

■ The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – Ps 106: 23-26, 28-31.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Some sailed to the sea in ships
to trade on the mighty waters.
These men have seen the Lord's deeds,
the wonders he does in the deep. R.

For he spoke; he summoned the gale,
tossing the waves of the sea
up to heaven and back into the deep;
their soul melted away in their distress. R.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need
and he rescued them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper:
all the waves of the sea were hushed. R.

They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them
to the haven they desired.
Let them thank the Lord for his love,
the wonders he does for men. R.

SECOND READING – Corinthians 5: 14-17.

A reading from the second letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians.

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.
From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ,
there is a new creation; the old creation has gone,
and now the new one is here.

■ The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people

Alleluia!

GOSPEL – Mark 4: 35-41

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

■ The Gospel of the Lord.

Let's Reflect.....

"He asked them, 'Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?'" – MARK 4:40

Do you really trust God? Is God your first choice or last resort? Is your faith something you just do on Sunday or do you live the Gospel message every day of the week? Many of us know about God. How many of us have a personal relationship with Him? Start now, open your heart to receive our Lord. Talk and listen to Him throughout the day, in all circumstances.

Year of Mark continues

For centuries, the Gospel of Mark was somewhat neglected by the Christian tradition and in preaching the Christian message. ... However, over the past 150 years, there has been a great increase of interest in the Gospel of Mark. This renewal of interest has its origins in the realisation among scholars that Mark's Gospel was most probably the first of the Gospels to be written. Matthew and Luke had their own sources for their stories of Jesus, but their major source was the Gospel of Mark. ... The first flush of interest in the Gospel of Mark came from a desire to see this 'oldest' Gospel as an accurate record of the life-story of Jesus. However, once scholars began to read this Gospel with greater care and interest, it soon became apparent that this particular version of the life-story of Jesus did more than detail the bare facts. As more and more people read the Gospel of Mark, they became aware that this story of Jesus of Nazareth had a fascination of its own which needed no support from the Gospel of Matthew. It is a profound reflection on two questions which are still central to Christianity: who is Jesus? what does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus? ...
